NORTH WILMINGTON, MASS. JULY 14, 1960

PRICE 10 CENTS

D.D.D. FOR WILMINGTON TELEPHONES SUNDAY

Direct Distance Dialing, from all Wilmington telephones to nearly all parts of the United States will go into effect at 12:01 EDT Sunday, the New England Telephone & Telegraph Company has announced.

The 3900 subscribers in Wilmington have all been notified of the event by direct mail, and given a booklet describing the process. They will be able to call directly over a million telephones in eastern Massachusetts, and a majority of the telephones throughout New England, and to most cities and towns throughout the United States and Canada.

No Change in Local Calls

The new and faster method of calling long distance will have no effect on local calls. All telephone calls to Wilmington, to the Lowell Suburban area, to Woburn and to Reading will be conducted in exactly the same manner, and with the same dialing as heretofore.

Joseph Smith, of Lowell, Wire Chief for the Lowell area will be in charge of the cut-over of the additional facilities.

MERCHANTS ORGANIZE TO STUDY URBAN RENEWAL

In a meeting last Thursday which has been described as 'rather desultory', landowners in Wilmington Square met to organize and see if they could come to a common opinion about the Urban Renewal proposal.

The meeting was held in the Masonic Hall, Thursday evening

Robert Edgar, a Vice President of the Middlesex County National Bank, and Atty Alan Altman, of Wilmington, were appointed a committee of two to study the question and to make recommendations to the other merchants.

CHLORINE TO BE DUMPED IN SILVER LAKE

Pollution Figures Jump

Water Superintendent Eddie Sargent has been ordered to 'dump' 100 pounds of Chlorine into Silver Lake, in an effort to combat a sudden rise in the bacterial count of the lake waters.

The chlorine, in a formula known as HTH, will be put into the lake at the rate of 50 lbs a day, for two days, and tests taken to find the results.

The order was issued by TM Cecil Lancaster Wednesday, after a report was given him of a test taken on July 7th., at The Town Beach.

The test, taken under ideal conditions, on a Thursday, (i.e. fewer swimmers than on a weekend), gave a bacteriological count of 4600, the highest figure ever found in Silver Lake. The chlorine is being put into the lake on the recommendations of Herbert Nickerson, of Marie Drive, Mass. Dept. of Public Health, Northeast District, Sanitary Engineer.

Nickerson told the Town Manager that the figure 4600 was 'definitely not dangerous' but above the approved standard.

A yardstick figure of 1000 is said to be the ideal figure for a public bathing beach, and any figure under 2400 is permissible.

Drinking water, such as is in the Wilmington water system, has a count of 2.

The pit, in Hathaway Acres was found to have one of the lowest counts in the area - its count being only 23.

Augustus C. Walker, Chairman of the Wilmington Board of Health offered an opinion that the sudden increase in the count at Silver Lake was due to the long dry spell, with no rainfall.

The Board of Health does not believe the situation is serious or permanent, and is watching the situation closely. If more chlorine is found to be needed it will be added, Walker said.

The cleanliness of the water at the Hathaway pit is ascribed to a filtering action of the sand, through which the water seems to be coming, into the pit.

RESTRAINING ORDER ALLEGES TRESPASSING

A temporary Restraining Order issued Wednesday noon, by Judge Jenny Loitman Barren, of the Suffolk Superior Court, alleges that the Benevento Gravel Company, of North Wilmington is 'trespassing' on land of Mervin and Grace Curl. Gravel operations are taking place on the Curl property, according to Town Building Inspector Minot Anderson, and Town Engineer Al Savignac.

Savignac has stated that the gravel now being removed by Benevento is being taken from land 'about 100 feet' from the Benevento line, in the Curl property.

Anderson signed the petition for the restraining order Wednesday noon, before Atty Charles Higginson, of Town Counsel Philip Buzzell's office and the restraining order issued a few minutes later.

The order had to be sought in the Suffolk Superior Court because the Middlesex Superior Court is closed for vacation.

It was issued in the name of John Benevento, son of Michael Benevento, who is enjoying a vacation trip to Italy.

CAGY SAM FINALLY SCRUBS THE LAUNDERERS

Cagy Sam Ethier has added a new scalp to his belt - viz and to wit: that of the Merri-Mac Launderers.

For five years Cagy Sam was the Manager of the Townies, first as an independently run team, and then under the kind paternalism of the Unit Packet Company, of Burlington Ave.

In all those five years Sam went from victory to victory, (with an occasional stunning defeat). But, in league play he could never defeat the Launderers, who derive their moral, financial and other support from the Merri Mac Dry Cleaners.

Sam could defeat the Launderers when the chips were down, in the annual Finals, but in straight league play the Launderers always came out on top, and all Sam would get would be some scap in his eye.

This year Cagy Sam sort of retired from the Manager's job and took a title of General Manager, while Jimmy Tighe, well known in Wilmington Skating Circles, took over the onus and duties of Manager.

Sam wasn't out of the running though - especially when it came to playing a game against the Launderers - and their coach, easy going Bob Baker.

The last game, for instance - the Townies were sitting on top of the world, and the Launderers were down in third

COPING FALLS FROM MAIN STREET BUILDING

Firemen Charles Lauziere and Harold Cail, at the site after the coping fell, last Saturday evening, from a Main Street store. Luckily no one was in the immediate area, shortly after 10 pm. The entire coping was later removed as a safety precaution.

OK SIGNS TO BALDWIN SITE

A proposal by the Rumford Historical Society, through Alison MacDougall, to erect road side signs directing the wayfarer to the site of the original Baldwin Apple Tree, off Chestnut Street has been given the OK by the Wilmington Planning Board.

The Board gave its approval Tuesday night.

AVCO GETS PERMIT FOR PERMANENT HYDROGEN INSTALLATION

A permit for the installation of tanks holding 9000 cubic feet of hydrogen was given to Avco, 201 Lowell Street, Monday night, by the Board of Selectmen.

Hydrogen has been used to a considerable extent in the research leading to the production of the Avco Nose Cones for IRBM missiles. Avco Fire Chief Leland Campbell told the Board of Selectmen that the permit was for a permanent installation which would allow greater ease of handling, and ensure safety.

IT'S A CONSPIRACY CHUMS

We received a check in the mail Wednesday morning, and we received a bill in the mail Wednesday morning. Both were from the Town of Wilmington.

The bill, of course, had to do with taxes. We'll probably pay it, but not on the day it is due - because we can't. The bill had printed on it Due July 1, 1960, and it was mailed July 12, 1960.

But that check. Of course we were glad to get it, but after having viewed for the past few days the work of the Board of Registrars there was one little letter on that check that made the hair on the back of our neck want to stand on end.

The Board of Registrars, by law, has to be exact in their work. If you sign up as a voter, and you sign (say) Charles A. MacWhozis, then you always have to use just that - Not Charles MacWhozis, nor Charles Augustus MacWhozis, but Charles A. MacWhozis. For the past several weeks our Board of Registrars has been throwing signatures out of Nomination Papers that were not signed in conformity with the law. They can not do anything else, and there is a moral lesson, or something, there, to remember just how you sign your name.

So, how did that check come to us? There was an extra initial stuck in it, along with our name. True, we had that initial some 35 or 40 years ago, but we dropped it, when we signed the Registrars list as a young man of about 21. Somebody in the Town Hall must have an extra long memory, and is trying to get us confused, so that we'll go and sign something wrong.

It's a conspiracy, that's what it is.

CAMP FORTY ACRES

The Campfire Girls, a relatively new organization in Wilmington, is at present enjoying Wilmington's own unique Camp Forty Acres, in North Wilmington. About 65 girls, with about a dozen adult women are spending the daylight hours, for the next three weeks, at this camp.

Of the dozen ladies, only one had ever been to the camp before. All of them are amazed that Wilmington should have such a place - they had read of it, but they didn't know of the facilities offered. Now they are enthusiastic boosters, and included in the list is Mrs. Ralph Choate, Boston Regional Camp Director for the Campfire Girls, who declares the camp to be better than a well known state-operated camp only a few miles from Wilmington.

Have you visited Camp Forty Acres? Your money goes to support it if you contribute to the Wilmington Community Fund. You should see what you are getting for your money, and at the first opportunity.

JURY DUTY

In the next few weeks about 67 of Wilmington's residents are going to get a form of greetings from the Board of Selectmen - the greetings being the news that they are eligible for Jury Duty, and that they may soon find their name on Wilmington's Jury List.

This is an unhappy event for some people, while others wish that they could get on the list - and don't know how to go about it.

Not everyone can serve, because of the way that the laws are written, but if a person should happen to want his name on the Jury List he is advised to let his nearest Selectman know.

WEATHER REPORT

L.A. has smog,

And it is chronic.

But this week it

Is histrionic.

If the person is eligible the Selectmen will be glad to comply, for every volunteer means one less chosen otherwise. Once a name is on the list it stays there for three years, unless there is actual jury duty. After jury duty, or after three years, a person cannot have his name on the list for at least a year.

So - if the reader has hopes of serving in the jury of a nice juicy (?) murder trial, he now has his chance to do something about taking the first step.

WATER DEPT CHIEF BURNS OVER PAINTING LETTER

Superintendent of the Water Department Eddie Sargent, smarting over a letter in the the writer asked that his name

the Town Manager contradicting the statements which had appeared in the Town Crier.

Sargent told the Town Manager that the employees of the Wa-

TOWN NOTES

L.A. to Wilmington

The Long Arm of Politics While Senator Jack Kennedy is in Los Angeles, in his Penthouse, awaiting the Democratic Nomination, his house mate is David F. Powers, of Everett, a consultant to the Massachusetts State Housing Board.

And Dave Powers is a Brother in Law to just about everyone in Baldwin's Alley, otherwise known as Jones Avenue, up in the Silver Lake District.

Mrs Powers is the former Josephine Lynch, and is staying with her sister, Mrs.
Charles Baldwin, until her husband gets through politic-ing. Her brother, Paul J.
Lynch, just happens to be Wilmington's No. 1 Cop and Chief of Police.

That Swimming Hole

That swimming hole, in Hatha-way's gravel pit, is giving some people the jitters. It's just too tricky, they declare, to allow people to swim in it.

The hole was made, as every one knows, by digging with power shovels. The consequence is a very uneven bottom, and a tot wading in what seems to be shallow water may suddenly find itself without any bottom at all - in a hole 12 feet deep. The results could be disastrous, particularly as there is no lifeguard present.

Conversely, a man swimming in what he thinks is deep water may suddenly bump against a ridge which extends upwards to just below the surface. He would probably escape with nothing more than a scratched chest and a bruised ego, but he could panic, with perhaps fatal results.

It's just that terribly irregular bottom.

Route Marker

Chief of Police Paul Lynch tells a story about Route 93.

Just before the route was opened he had an occasion to be on it, and a rather rickety car passed him. Paul decided that the car might possibly collapse, because of its speed and overtook the driver. At the moment he overtook the driver he was doing 85.

They stopped near one of the route markers, and Paul pointed to it.

"That" he said, "is the route number - not the speed limit!"

Carbuncle

There isn't much that can keep Nick De Felice from a Selectmen's meeting. While he doesn't have a 100% attendance record, the meetings that Nick has missed since he became a Selectman are few and far between.

But Nick missed Monday evening's meeting, and it was a very small matter, relatively speaking. It was a carbuncle that laid Nick low, and kept him away from the Town Hall.

Who Found the Plane?

The Town Crier had a picture of a model airplane, found in the woods, and then a story about the boy to whom it belonged - but no one could tell us just who had found it in the first place.

Now we learn, through the kindness of Mrs Charles Thompson, of Kendall Street, that the finder was a little four year old boy, Michael Rowe, son of Mr and Mrs Paul Rowe of Jacquith Road.

LETTER

Colorado Springs
July 5th, 1960

Dear Larz:

Tomorrow we leave Colorado Springs enroute to Oregon. We have had a great time meeting old acquaintances from all over the States. The last count was 1030 Airstream trailers all encamped in one great field beside Prospect Lake at the edge of the city limits. Last evening they fed 3300 Caravaners in Western chuck wagon style, by the Flying W Ranch. At this dinner we were the guests of the Airstream Trailer Company. It is amazing the organization that has been developed. You can go to the information trailer and find any family or trailer by a cross index and also a location map showing exactly where each trailer can be found.

Yesterday, the Fourth, was a big day. A parade with all States including Alaska and Hawaii represented. In the afternoon there was a bathing beauty contest as part of the Teen-Queen of the caravan contest. Our Anne had been chosen to represent the New England States and Eastern Canada. She goes into the finals to-night at the big banquet that winds up the major festivities.

In the evening, after the big chuck wagon dinner, we saw movies taken of the African Caravan just ended. They traveled from Cape Dawn to Trieste Italy as a unit of 42 trailers. Elephants to pigmies were pictured in their primitive state.

On Saturday we went up Pikes Peak on the Cog Railway and down by auto on the other side. It was the only clear day, all day, that we have had. Right now it is raining hard.

One meets some unusual people at a gathering such as this.

Dr. Monroe, who is age 84, has just returned from the African Caravan. On talking with some of those that were in Africa with him, it was hardly believable, that, at his age, he could drive that many thousands of miles, do all his own repairs on the four wheel drive car that they all used, and come up looking for more. I guess I don't live right.

Colorado Springs has proved to be a most delightful place to come to. A fine city with many cultural opportunities. All types of sports are found. Water skiing, bathing, golf, tennis, mountain climbing, terrific scenery, no bugs. Haven't seen a mosquito since arriving.

Well, must now leave you. Will let you know more of our luck, both good and bad. Always a confirmed New Englander,
Dr. Mac,

DRIVER ESCAPES DEATH

Edward F. McGurn, 96 Nichols St. Wilmington had a narrow escape from death, Monday afternoon, when the wheels of a truck he was driving fell off, on Route 62, near Route 93. McGurn escaped with injuries on his hip.

JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES TO HOLD GATHERING IN BOSTON

About 20,000 are expected to be in attendance at the large gathering of Witnesses on August 11-15 at Fenway Park in Boston. They will come primarily from the Northeastern section of the United States. Fifteen conventions in various parts of this country and Canada are planned.

"This is our first large Boston assembly since 1954," Mr. Robert S. Jones, presiding minister of the local group said, "and from all indications everyone locally plans to attend." 5000 from New York already are planning to attend and special trains have been arranged for them.

TOWN COUNSEL DOESN'T THINK MUCH OF BONDS

In a letter to the Chairman of the Planning Board, Town Counsel Philip B Buzzell has ruled that the Planning Board may properly insist on the completion of one section of a real estate development before allowing a second section to be started.

The letter was written because of an inquiry about an outstanding bond, on the Signore Development, in North Wilmington, and read:

'You have a perfect right to demand that the developer complete the streets in the section covered by the bond according to your requirements before consenting to his opening up any other sections.

You could, of course, also require a new bond covering the new section but as I have previously recommended, I think a much more effective procedure would be to require the actual completion of the streets in accordance with your requirements before releasing any lots for sale. My own opinion of bonds is that they are of little or no practical value'.

ROUNDS PROPOSES TO ADD 54 HOUSES TO HATHAWAY ACRE DEVELOPMENT

A. P. Rounds, of Stoneham, the developer of Hathaway Acres, in North Wilmington, is preparing plans for an addition to his development which would add 54 homes to the area.

Rounds visited the Wilmington Planning Board with preliminary sketches, Tuesday night.

place. Yet Bob's boys were handy with the soap, and the Launderers won, 10 to 2. Sam sat on the bench with a stick in his hand. Every time the Launderers crossed the plate he broke off another piece of that stick - and when the game was over there was quite a pile of cordwood at Sam's feet.

But last Thursday was different. By rights the Townies should not have won, for their star pitcher, Franny Hoban, is working nights, and hence not able to play.

But there was Dick Ethier, of Glen Road, the second-best pinball player on Glen Road, to pitch the first three innings, and then there was Butch (Golden Toe) McPeeters,

His proposal would continue Hathaway Road to Martin's Brook, and two other roads, one to the north, and one to the south, both being parallel to Hathaway Road, and both to the brook, or another stream which comes from the Barrows Field pumping station.

There are 98 homes in the present development, which was started in 1948.

of Salem Street, to pitch the last four.

Butch might not be a pitcher, but he is a pretty good substitute for one. He has a mad-dening delivery - right across the plate, and oh, so slow. The batter can't make up his mind when to strike, and then when he does he finds that Butch has slipped in a fast ball, and it is already in the catcher's glove.

Bob's star pitcher, on the other hand, wasn't quite up to snuff. George (Oby) O'Brien is a good man on the mound, but he needs to play twice a week to keep up to snuff. George has been playing only once a week recently - and it showed.

George, at one point in the game, was accused by Bob Baker of playing with bowls, instead of a softball - that's how low the balls were - so he shifted to airplane flying instead.

But the umpire just called them, and he called them balls. Twice in the game the bases were loaded, without any of the Townies even trying. They just stood at the plate, got four balls, and marched up to first base.

Then when the Townies did get a chance to whack the ball, it too many times went in the direction of Larry Cushing, who plays third base for the Launderers.

Larry is the sort of fellow who can use his right hand when the left won't go. He used that right hand, and a few prodigious leaps, to stifle any real hits by the Townies in his direction - but unfortunately, that didn't quite make up for the walks which the Townies were getting with amazing regularity.

So, when the final score was in, there were the Townies on top 13 to 5.

And there wasn't even one broken stick, at Cagy Sam's feet.

TOWN COUNSEL SAYS NO HEARING NECESSARY IN BUS LICENSE

There is no need of a hearing to determine the public reaction on a proposed bus line, Town Counsel Philip Buzzell ruled, on June 29th., in a letter to Town Manager Cecil Lancaster.

Pointing out that the law requires a public hearing if a franchise is to be discontinued, he stated that the inference was clear that one was not needed at the beginning. Buzzell's letter was in response to a Selectman directed inquiry because of the proposal of the Twombly Motor Coach Company to establish Lawrence-Boston bus service, with a stop in North Wilmington.
